GENERAL PROXY INFORMATION

Solicitation of Proxies

This Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by management of the Corporation for use at the Meeting to be held at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Meeting. References in this Circular to the Meeting include any adjournment or adjournments thereof. It is expected that the solicitation will be primarily by mail, however proxies may also be solicited personally by telephone or by facsimile by the directors and/or officers of the Corporation at nominal cost. The cost of solicitation by management will be borne by the Corporation. Pursuant to National Instrument 54-101 Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer, arrangements have been made with clearing agencies, brokerage houses and other financial intermediaries to forward proxy solicitation material to the beneficial owners of the Common Shares. The cost of any such solicitation will be borne by the Corporation.

Appointment and Revocation of Proxies

The persons named in the enclosed form of proxy are directors of the Corporation and will represent management at the Meeting. A Shareholder desiring to appoint some other person, who need not be a shareholder, to represent him at the Meeting, may do so by inserting such person's name in the blank space provided in the enclosed form of proxy or by completing another proper form of proxy and, in either case, depositing the completed proxy at the registered office of the Corporation or the office of the Transfer Agent indicated on the enclosed envelope at least 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, preceding the Meeting or any adjournment thereof at which the proxy is to be used. A proxy should be executed by a Shareholder or his or her attorney duly authorized in writing or, if the shareholder is a corporation, by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized.

A Shareholder forwarding the enclosed proxy may indicate the manner in which the appointee is to vote with respect to any specific item by checking the appropriate space. If the Shareholder giving the proxy wishes to confer a discretionary authority with respect to any item of business then the space opposite the item is to be left blank. The Common Shares represented by the proxy submitted by a Shareholder will be voted in accordance with the directions, if any, given in the proxy.

A proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by instrument in writing, including another proxy bearing a later date, executed by the Shareholder or by his attorney duly authorized in writing, and deposited either at the registered office of the Corporation or the office of its Transfer Agent at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the date of the Meeting or with the Chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof in any other manner permitted by law.

A Shareholder attending the Meeting has the right to vote in person and, if he or she does so, his or her proxy is nullified with respect to the matters such person votes upon and any subsequent matters thereafter to be voted upon at the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Exercise of Discretion by Proxies

The persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote the Common Shares in respect of which they are appointed in accordance with the direction of the shareholders appointing them. In the absence of such direction, such Common Shares will be voted in favour of passing each of the resolutions described below. The enclosed form of proxy confers discretionary authority upon the persons named therein with respect to amendments or variations to matters identified in the Notice of Meeting and with respect to other matters which may properly come before the Meeting. At the time of printing of this Circular, management knows of no such amendments, variations or other matters to come before the Meeting. However, if any other matters which are not now known to management should properly come before the Meeting, the proxy will be voted on such matters in accordance with the best judgment of the named proxies.

Advice to Beneficial Holders of Shares

The information set forth in this section is of significant importance to many Shareholders of the Corporation, as a substantial number of Shareholders do not hold Common Shares of the Corporation in their own name. Shareholders who do not hold their Common Shares in their own name ("Beneficial Shareholders") should note that only proxies deposited by Shareholders whose names appear on the records of the Corporation as the registered holders of Common Shares can be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting. If Common Shares are listed in an account statement provided to a Shareholder by a broker, then, in almost all cases, those Common Shares will not be registered in the Shareholder's name on the records of the Corporation. Such Common Shares will more likely be registered under the name of the Shareholder's broker or an agent of that broker. In Canada, the vast majority of such shares are registered under the name of CDS & Co. (the nominee of The Canadian Depository for Securities, which acts as depository for many Canadian brokerage firms). Common Shares held by brokers or their agents or nominees can only be voted (for or against resolutions) upon the instructions of the Beneficial Shareholder. Without specific instructions, a broker and its agents and nominees are prohibited from voting shares for the broker's clients. Therefore, Beneficial Shareholders should ensure that instructions respecting the voting of their Common Shares are communicated to the appropriate person.

Applicable regulatory rules require intermediaries/brokers to seek voting instructions from Beneficial Shareholders in advance of shareholders' meetings. Every intermediary/broker has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions to clients, which should be carefully followed by Beneficial Shareholders in order to ensure that their Common Shares are voted at the Meeting. Often, the form of proxy supplied to a Beneficial Shareholder by its broker (or the agent of the broker) is identical to the form of proxy provided to registered shareholders. However, its purpose is limited to instructing the registered shareholder (the broker or agent of the broker) how to vote on behalf of the Beneficial Shareholder. The majority of brokers now delegate responsibility for obtaining instructions from clients to ADP Investor Communications (formerly Independent Investor Communications Corporation) ("ADP"). ADP normally prepares a "Voting Instruction Form" (the "VIF") based upon the Corporation's form of proxy, which ADP then distributes to Beneficial Shareholders. The VIF must then be returned to ADP by the Beneficial Shareholder to be valid. ADP then tabulates the results of all instructions received and provides appropriate instructions respecting the voting of Common Shares to be represented at the Meeting. A Shareholder receiving an ADP VIF cannot use that proxy to vote Common Shares directly at the Meeting. The VIF must be returned to ADP well in advance of the Meeting in order to have the Common Shares voted at the Meeting. Some brokers who do not use ADP's services send out the Corporation's form of proxy to Beneficial Shareholders, executed by the broker but otherwise incomplete; the Beneficial Shareholder must mark the proxy how her or she wishes to vote and return the proxy either directly to the Transfer Agent or to the broker, who will then forward the proxy to the Transfer Agent.

Although a Beneficial Shareholder may not be recognized directly at the Meeting for the purposes of voting Common Shares registered in the name of his or her broker (or an agent of the broker), a Beneficial Shareholder may attend at the Meeting as proxy holder for the registered shareholder and vote the Common Shares in that capacity. Beneficial Shareholders who wish to attend the Meeting and indirectly vote their Common Shares as proxy holder for the registered shareholder, should enter their own names in the blank space on the form of proxy provided to them and return same to their broker (or the broker's agent) in accordance with the instructions provided by such broker (or agent), well in advance of the Meeting. If a non-registered holder has voted by mail and would like to change its vote, the non-registered holder should contact its nominee to discuss whether this is possible and what procedures such non-registered holder should follow.

Voting Shares and Principal Holders Thereof

The authorized capital of the Corporation consists of an unlimited number of Common Shares, an unlimited number of Non-Voting Common Shares and an unlimited number of preference shares issuable in series. As at the date hereof, 3,443,687 Common Shares, 1,280,000 Series A Preferred Shares, 22,000,000 Series B Preferred Shares, 18,500,000 Series C Preferred Shares and 3,500,000 Non-Voting Common Shares are issued and outstanding. Each Common Share entitles the holder thereof to one vote in respect of each matter to be voted upon at the Meeting. The Non-Voting Common Shares, the Series A Preferred Shares, Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares and Series D Preferred Shares do not entitle the holder thereof to vote.

The Corporation has fixed May 28, 2007 as the Record Date for the purpose of determining Shareholders entitled to receive notice of the Meeting. In accordance with the provisions of the OBCA, the Corporation will prepare a list of holders of Common Shares at the close of business on the Record Date. Each holder of Common Shares named in the list will be entitled to vote at the Meeting the Common Shares shown opposite his name on the list except to the extent that such shareholder has transferred any of his Common Shares after the date on which the list was prepared, and the transferee of those Common Shares produces properly endorsed share certificates or otherwise establishes ownership of the Common Shares and demands not later than 10 days before the Meeting to be included in the list of shareholders entitled to vote at the Meeting, in which case the transferee is entitled to vote such Common Shares at the Meeting.

A quorum for the transaction of business at the Meeting is the presence of two shareholders of the Corporation holding Common Shares, present in person.

As at the date hereof the following table sets forth the only person who, to the knowledge of the directors and senior officers of the Corporation, beneficially owns or exercises control or direction over securities of the Corporation carrying more than 10% of the voting rights attached to any class of outstanding voting securities of the Corporation entitled to be voted at the Meeting.

Name	Number of Common Shares	Percentage of Common Shares
Trilon Bancorp Inc.	1,652,905	48.0%

On April 13, 2004, TBI acquired 3,500,000 Series D Preferred Shares, which were converted in March 2006 into 3,500,000 Non-Voting Common Shares on the basis of one Non-Voting Common Share for each Series D Preferred Share, and is eligible to acquire up to 18,500,000 Series C Preferred Shares, based on the aggregate revenue earned pursuant to certain software license agreements, of which all 18,500,00 Series C Preferred Shares have been issued. In fiscal 2004, 2,000,000 Series B Preferred Shares were issued to TBI upon conversion of the Debenture on the basis of one Series B Preferred Share for each $1.00 principal of Debenture converted.

No person is authorized to give any information or to make any representation with respect to matters set forth in this Circular and, if given or made, such information or representation should not be relied upon as having been authorized. This Circular does not constitute the solicitation of a proxy, by any person in any jurisdiction in which such solicitation is not authorized or in which the person making such solicitation is not qualified to do so or to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such proxy solicitation.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The number of directors to be elected at the meeting is five. Management does not contemplate that any of the proposed nominees will be unable to serve as a director but, if that should occur for any reason prior to the meeting, the management representatives designated in the enclosed form of proxy reserve the right to vote for another nominee at their discretion. Each director will hold office until the next annual meeting or until his or her successor is elected or appointed unless his office is earlier vacated in accordance with the Corporation's by-laws and the OBCA. The following information is submitted with respect to the nominees for director.

STATEMENT OF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The Corporation's corporate governance practices have attempted to ensure that the Management is able to draw assistance from individual Board members as well as seek advice from the Board as a whole, when circumstances require it. In accordance with National Instrument 58-101 Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices, the Corporation is required to disclose on an annual basis its approach to corporate governance. The Corporation's corporate governance practices have been and continue to be in compliance with applicable Canadian requirements. Where the Corporation does not so comply, it believes non-compliance is justifiable and its reasoning is provided. Corporate governance guidelines change from time to time. The Board does monitor pending regulatory initiatives and developments in the corporate governance area and will address them as appropriate.

Mandate of the Board:

The Board assumes explicit responsibility for the stewardship of the Corporation directly and through its Audit Committee. The responsibilities of the Board have not been set out in a written mandate, but the Board is, among other matters, responsible for the following:

- strategic planning – overseeing the strategic planning process for the Corporation and reviewing, approving and monitoring the strategic plan for the Corporation including fundamental financial and business strategies and objectives;
- risk management – assessing the major risks facing the Corporation and reviewing, approving and monitoring the manner of managing those risks;

The Board reviews major strategic initiatives to ensure that the proposed actions are in accordance with Shareholder objectives. Prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, management presents its financial plan and its objectives for the current year in the context of the approved strategic plan. Management reports to the Board on a quarterly basis with respect to progress against management's current year's goals and analyzes financial results against the financial plan.

The Board ensures management has considered the principal risks of the Corporation's businesses and monitors those risks based on business reports prepared by Management. In addition, the Audit Committee reviews the findings of the Corporation's external auditors, and thereby provides additional awareness of the principal risks to the Corporation's businesses, and then reports thereon to the Board on a regular basis. (Refer to Appendix A to the Corporation's Annual Information Form dated May 31, 2007) The Audit Committee and the Board approve the AIF and MD&A prior to each being filed on the Canadian Securities Administrators' System for Electronic Document Analysis and Retrieval ("SEDAR").

Disclosure Policy:

The objective of the Corporation's disclosure policy (the "Disclosure Policy") is to ensure that communications to the investing public about the Corporation are timely, factual and accurate and consistent and broadly disseminated in accordance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements. The Disclosure Policy extends to all employees of the Corporation. It covers disclosures in documents filed with securities commissions and written statements made in the Corporation's annual and quarterly reports, news releases, letters to shareholders, speeches and presentations by management or other persons speaking on behalf of the Corporation and information contained on the Corporation's Web site and other electronic communications. It extends to oral statements made in meetings and telephone conversations with analysts and investors, interviews with the media as well as press conferences and conference calls.

A committee consisting of the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer (collectively, the "Disclosure Committee") has been appointed by the Directors to monitor management's and the Corporation's adherence to the Disclosure Policy. Material information will be publicly disclosed as soon as practicable via news releases. Once it is determined that a development is material, the Disclosure Committee will authorize the issuance of a news release, unless it is determined that such developments must remain confidential for the time being and appropriate control of that inside information is instituted. The Disclosure Committee will ensure that all persons with knowledge of such confidential information are informed of their obligation to keep the information confidential until it is disclosed to the public and to refrain from buying securities of the Corporation or any other company that is affected by the confidential information.

The Board also meets annually to review and approve the annual business plan and long-term strategic plan.

The Audit Committee, comprised entirely of independent directors, meets with the Corporation's auditors without management present in connection with the approval of the audited consolidated financial statements of the Corporation. The independent directors do not typically meet without management. During the year ended February 28, 2007, five Board meetings and four meetings of the Audit Committees were held. Except as disclosed herein, all member of the Board and the Audit Committee, respectively, attended all Board meetings and Audit Committee meetings. Mr. Meretsky was unable to attend one Board meeting and one Audit Committee meeting.

Orientation and Continuing Education

New Directors are provided with a brief history of the Corporation, together with an orientation package containing all of the Board's policies, committee charters and the Corporation's most recent Annual Report, Annual Information Form and Management Proxy Circular. The Board does not currently undertake any continuing education for directors. The Directors are experienced members, many of whom are or have been directors on boards of other issuers. The Board relies on professional assistance when judged necessary in order to be educated/updated on a particular topic.

Ethical Business Conduct

The Corporation adopted a code of business conduct in May 2006. All members of management of the Corporation have acknowledged receipt of a copy of and are subject to the Corporation's code of business conduct. The code of business conduct is published on the Corporation's website at www.homeserve.ca.

Nomination of Directors

Prior to being restructured in 2002, the Corporation had adopted a Governance and Nominating Committee Charter, which provided among other things, that the committee was responsible for assessing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and evaluating the contribution of individual members, assessing the Corporation's governance, proposing new nominees for appointment to the Board; and orienting new Directors. The work of this Committee has, since 2002, been conducted by the full Board. The process by which the Corporate Governance Committee identifies new candidates for board nomination begins with the approval by the Board of an outline of the skills-sets and background which are desired in a new candidate. Board members or management may suggest candidates for consideration by the Committee. Prospective candidates are interviewed by the Chair and by other Board members on an ad hoc basis. An invitation to join the Board is extended only after the Board has reached a consensus on the appropriateness of the candidate.

Compensation

Prior to being restructured in 2002, the Corporation had adopted a Compensation Committee Charter, which provided among other things, that the committee was responsible for reviewing and approving and then recommending to the Board salary, bonus, and other benefits, and any change control packages of the Chief Executive Officer and other members of the senior Management Team, recommend salary guidelines to the Board, administration of the Corporation's compensation plan and establishment and periodic review of the Corporation's policies in the area of Management benefits and perquisites. The work of this Committee has, since 2002, been conducted by the full Board because of the relatively small number of employees employed by the Corporation.

The Corporation's executive compensation program consists of the following components: base salary, annual incentive compensation such as bonuses, and benefits and other perquisites, such as life insurance and health plans.

Base salaries are determined on a discretionary basis taking into account the executive's responsibilities, skills, sustained performance and the achievement of corporate objectives. The Chief Executive Officer's salary is reviewed annually by the Board on the basis of the above criteria and adjusted accordingly. The Chief Executive Officer is also eligible to receive an annual bonus as determined by the Board based on his responsibilities and performance, achievement of corporate objectives and the Corporation's financial performance. See "Compensation of Executive Officers – Summary Compensation Table".

Assessment of the Board

Due to the relatively small size of the Board, it has not conducted a formal assessment of the Directors since the Corporation's restructuring in 2002.
